4. Reports.

General

Sadness was expressed at the passing of Sue White, secretary of the club. The members would like it minuted that we were grateful for her efficiency as secretary and for her friendship and companionship on the walks and ventures since the club's formation. She will be greatly missed. The latest walk was held partly in remembrance of Sue. Due to Covid restrictions walks were suspended during lockdown and then restarted when allowed under BMC rules. Thanks to all those who have lead the walks, the two Peters'.
